CITY OF CHICAGO.

Tuesday Morning.....Feb. 17, 1857.

Rivers and Harbors.

It will be seen, by reference to the telegraph, that Mr. WASHBURNE, of the First District, has called up this subject in the House. His purpose is, to force that body to a vote: whether he will succeed, is doubtful. One thing is certain, that the Republicans are ready to do justice to the West, in this regard, if the Buchanan men will let them.

Emigrants to Kansas.

We call attention to a paper prepared by Professor EDWARD DANIELS, published on third page, in relation to Kansas. The information given is reliable. Professor D. speaks whereof he knows, and so combines truthfulness and energy, with practical ability, as to render his word and advice almost conclusive. We hope our brethren of the Press will give a wide circulation to this sensible paper, for every emigrant should read it. As to that, indeed, it will furnish to the general reader information at once exact and instructive. Circulate then, the document.

Lake Superior Intelligence.

We have received a late copy of the Lake Superior Miner and condense from its columns some interesting intelligence concerning Lake Superior matters.

Ontonagon is said to be improving very rapidly and the Miner thinks it destined to become the most important point on the Lake Shore. During 1856 some forty new buildings were erected—various streets graded and planked and a large amount of real estate sold to actual settlers.

The Minnesota mine—fifteen miles from Ontonagon—shipped during the year ending Jan. 1st, 1857, 3,718,403 pounds of copper. Of this amount only 256,804 pounds was stamp work. The copper will probably be found of a high purity. There are now employed on the location, above and below ground, some 537 persons.

The Rockland, National, Nebraska, and other mines are also reported as raising large quantities of copper.

Great improvements have been made on the Ontonagon Harbor, and several new docks and piers erected.

All the mines are making preparations to ship copper largely during the coming season when "lively times" are expected.

It would be well for our Chicago merchants to open a larger trade with Lake Superior in which there is a good chance, if we mistake not, for investments of a most profitable nature.

Missouri is now, financially, in no condition to assume a new debt of fifty millions of dollars. The Abolition papers of the North, and conspicuous among them, the Chicago Tribune, have been laboring to prove that she will be utterly unable even to pay her present debt. If Missouri be unable to pay a debt of nineteen millions, we do not understand how her condition would be benefited by adding to that debt the sum of fifty millions of dollars.—Times.

The Times overlooks the important fact, that Missouri as a Free State would be more able to sustain a debt of fifty millions, than to carry nineteen millions as a Slave State. She contains forty million acres of land. A tax of a dollar on each acre would buy out of bondage every slave within her limits, who number but 87,500 instead of 100,000 as the Times elsewhere states. If made a Free State, the lands of Missouri would rise in value five dollars per acre, on an average, immediately; and, five dollars more in the five succeeding years.

Here would be two hundred millions added to the real estate to cover the supposed loss of forty millions of human chattles, with the certainty of a much further enhancement in a brief time. As a mere pecuniary speculation, the Missourians could make two hundred and forty millions of dollars by first passing a law forbidding the importation of any more slaves into that State, and, secondly by taking all the slaves now in the State, down to Texas and the other cotton growing States, and selling them for the plunder. Or, if the slaves were emancipated without pay or compensation, the increase in the value of land would re-embarrass the proprietors to the full extent of the liberated bondmen, while the non-slaveholding land owners would find their real estate doubled in value.

But it would only be the interest on the forty millions that would be required to pay. By the time the principle fell due, 36 years hence, the property of that State would be ten fold it present value.

These truths RAVEN may dispute, and block heads may not comprehend; but the living examples of Illinois on the one side of Missouri, and Iowa on the other, demonstrate them before the world.

Outrageous Gerrymander.

Our attentive Springfield correspondent has informed the readers of the Tribune of the character of the new apportionment bill which the Black Democracy are striving to force through both branches of the Legislature. It should be entitled "A BILL to enable a dough-face minority to rule a Free State majority," and the object of the scheme to send DOUGLAS back to the Senate in defiance of the will of the majority of the people.

The method adopted to retain power after being repudiated by the people, is as follows:

1st. To give the Pro-Slavery counties more representatives than their population entitles them to.

2d. To give the Free State counties less members than their population allows them.

3d. To single out a number of Free State counties, and bury them beneath adjoining Pro-Slavery counties.

By these dishonest means it will require the Republicans to have an aggregate majority of 20,000 over the Black Democracy to carry the next legislature.

Stark county is chained to Peoria and Woodford; Sangamon is weighed down by Christian. Madison is disfranchised of half her proper representation. She is given one member with a population of 31,556, which fairly entitles her to two members, considering her rapid increase of population. Bond, which is Anti-Buchanan, is sunk beneath Clinton and Washington. Coles, which is also Anti-Buchanan, shares the same fate, while Shelby, Edwards and Wabash, which are American Republican, are fastened to such Egyptian millstones, as Wayne, Jefferson and Hamilton. St. Clair is linked to Monroe and Randolph. One of the North Side Wards of Chicago—the 7th, we understand, is set off as a representative district, containing but a mere fraction of the requisite population. Hancock, which is American Republican is tied to Schuyler, and sunk.

The tools of DOUGLAS are only enabled to force their unjust partisan bill through the House by giving the seats of two Republican members to two non-elected Buchanan, of their own kidney. They seated those bogus "members" by violence, and have continued them by fraud in their ill gotten seats. The Indian Usurpers in Kansas set an example which their Illinois brethren have faithfully copied.

We might point out several other shiny features of this bill conceived in sin and brought forth in iniquity. But enough has been said to expose its character. It is the imperative duty of the Republicans to fight it to the death, and if passed over their heads the Governor should veto it.

STRANGE.—We find, upon investigation, that there are the following amounts of produce in store in this city and to go forward as soon as navigation opens:

Wheat	45,000 bushels
Corn	24,000 "
Oats	12,000 "
Rye	1,000 "
Barley	3,000 "

We are not able to give the amount of the product of the pork packers of the season, as the packers have not entirely closed up their operations. In a few days we expect to be able to give the sum total.

WOLF AT MADISON, WIS.—Our Madison correspondent tells a wild wolf made his appearance one time last week in Madison, and amused himself by attacking several citizens. The Journal insists on the "Wolf of the Wolds," and adds the following pleasantry to an article on the subject:

P. S. We understand that the wolf that was taken up by walpet, about four miles south-west of this city, on Friday last, is doing as well as could be expected under the circumstances.

The whole thing has a "hoaxy" odor, and we need confirmation.

A CHARACTER WITHOUT A PARTNER.—As the Sun, the great luminary in the enlightened world, shines, the other orbs, by its rays, are made to shine. Instead of a partner, he has a satellite, which, by reflecting his beams, gives light to the night
